©CLE442339 CR

When They Hold That Old Re-union Down In Dixie.

by Edwin F. Jones
410 East 163rd St.
N.Y. City.
N.Y.

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 17—12 lines.

M1646
.J

When They Hold That Old Re-union Down In Dixie.

Words & Music by Edwin F. Jones.

Intro.

Voice

They're get—ing read—y for a jub—i—lee
The folks for miles a—round old Dix—ie land—

They're sure—ly goin to have some time The boys are Are wait-ing for their he—ro lads They'll hold a com—ing— home From far a—cross the— foam

hol—i— day Those rag—time bands will— play

They'll get some wel—come Some wel—come when they They'll give some wel—come Some wel—come to the hit that old home town.

boys that went a—way.

Chorus.

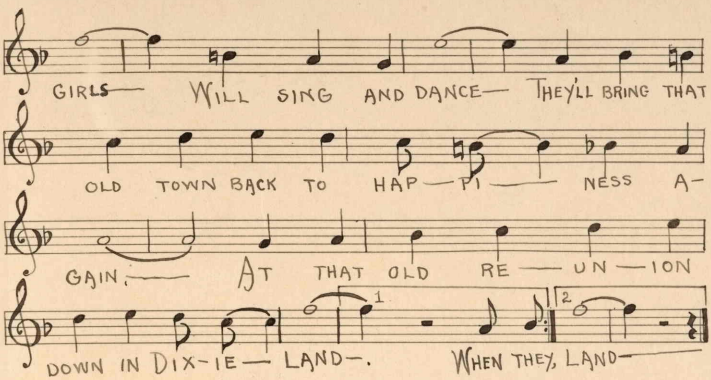
When they hold that old re-un—ion down in Dix—ie theres goin to be— Some jub—i—lee— Old Unc—le Joe and Al-ex— an—der will be there—. Their Mu—sic strains— Will fill the air—. The boys in town—. Back home from France—. With their pret—ty—



Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 17—12 lines.

450401