AUG 27 1917

★★★ AMERICA ★★★

WON'T YOU TAKE ME BACK TO YOU

TELL TAYLOR
MUSIC PUBLISHER
NEW YORK CHICAGO

41646
J

©ME409681

America Won't You Take Me Back To You

Words by OLE OLSEN.

Music by ISHAM JONES.

Marcia.

f

One day while in a dis-tant for-eign clime, I I trav - eled 'round and tried to set-tle down, It mf

met a man bowed down with grief and care, He seemed to be a coun-try man of mine So I seemed as tho' there was no rest for me, No mat - ter where I went I al-ways found That I won-dered and I asked why he was there; He said, "I'll tell you my sto - ry, of longed for my old home a-cross the sea; I hope that some-day in some-way that how I left Old Glo-ry, With hat-red in my heart for ev-'ry man, They told me to I can serve Old Glo-ry, And go back to that dear old U. S. A. I'll serve her for International Copyright Secured.

Copyright MCMXVII by TELL TAYLOR.

All Rights Reserved.

go and to neer re-turn a - gain, So I left to seek a home in for - eign lands.
life, in her bat - tles and her strife, Then I know that I will nev - er have to say:

CHORUS.

I float-ed down the Nile in E - gypt, I've roam'd the sun - ny coasts of Spain, And while I p-f plowed thru snows in Rus - sia, Then I longed for home a - gain, I walk'd the rock - y rit.

road to Dub - lin I tried to set - tle in Pe - ru, But A - mer - i - ca, A-rit.

a tempo

mer - i - ca, Won't you take me back to you. I float-ed you.

a tempo

H.S. TALBOT CO.
Music Printers
Chicago.

SONGS YOU SHOULD SING

There's A Dear Spot in Ireland

Walsh-Taylor & Erdman

CHORUS

There's a dear spot in Ire-land Where I long to be, 'Tis the home of my Moth-er and it's heav-en to me Sure I'd give all the world just to sail 'cross the sea To that dear spot in Ire-land where I long to be.

mf rit.

When the Harvest Time is Over

By Tell Taylor

REFRAIN

When the har vest time is o ver, And the leaves are turn ing gold Will you tell me that you love me, p-f (d)

As you did in days of old That's the time I'll come to meet you With a hug and kiss I'll greet you

I Love You Best Of All

By TELL TAYLOR.

REFRAIN.

I love the sil - ver in your hair, I love the gold that lin - gers there I love to see your sweet smiling face, for there's noone else can take you place, I love your eyes, your fin - ger tips,

TELL TAYLOR, MUSIC PUBLISHER, Grand Opera House, CHICAGO.

413582