also in a♭

PRESSER
AUG 15 1918
PHILADA.
©CLE430097

When The War Is Over.

Words + Music by Orlen L. Jordan.

Tempo di Marcia

Voice

Piano

mf

They were marching, marching onward; They were going to fight the Foe; There were tears, there were cheers ringing As she thought of him each day, She was thinking ev-

f creac.

p

and laughter, But they all were so proud to go-er thinking Of the boy who had marched away; There were two whose hearts were heavy- She saw him in the trenches-

mf

pp

He was standing by her side— She saw him while at rest— And just before he left her, He And she knew that he'd be thinking— Of the

M1646
.J

PRESSER
PHILADA.

Refrain —

rall.

whispered this with pride — girl whom he loved → best — When the war is over and our work is

pp

mf pp 2nd time

done; When the victory's ours dear, With Fritz on the run. I shall smile, dear

f ff p

Flora, Knowing that you're true; With the Yankees homeward bound,

rit.

1. 2.

I'll return to you. — you. —

a tempo

466996