NOV 26 1917
©CLE414037

"Freedom, Your Voice is Calling"

Words by Oscar F. G. Day — Music by C. Franz Koehler

Copy for Register of Copyrights,
Washington, D. C.

Sent by
C. Franz Koehler
2707 1st Ave So.
Minneapolis Minn.

H1646
.K

"Freedom, Your Voice is Calling."

Words by Oscar F. G. Day

Music by C. Franz Koehler

Marcia.

Marcia

Mf

cresc.

1 Hear that sound of 2 Kate, Jane, Ruth, Sue, thou- sands of tramp - ing feet, See those long lines swing-ing a- long Mel - lie and Mar - gu-e- rite, All the girls are wait-ing a- long the street, Bands are play - ing ev'- ry where, the street, While their sweet - hearts march-ing by

Hark to the sound — of the drum
Smile at the tear — in their eye

Some one start - ed trou- ble with Un — cle Sam,
"Good bye dear ones, when we re - turn — to you,

Some one's got to pay — Lets show Let our deeds re - mind — That for Eu - rope how to fight, Li - ber - ty light - ing the you we've been true blue, Gir - lies were leav - ing be -

Refrain p - mf

way.
-hind.

Free- dom, — your voice is Refrain.

p - Mf

call - ing — We have an an - swere that won't take long — U. S. A. we're in to stay (on our way)

Arm-y and Na - vy, ten mill - ion strong. Com-rads, — we'll soon be with you — Wait till our eag-les are in the sky — Then we'll e-lect Will-iam

Kai-ser as Hell's sup-er-vi-sor, to Ber-lin he'll say "Good

1 Bye" — 2 Bye"

420173