©AE409617
AUG 27 1917

Introducing the latest National Anthem:

"Liberty's Tribute."

Words and Music by Della Kopp

Introduction

Voice

1. Oh never be it said that cour-age here is dead A-
2. So fight for the right and fight with all your might, George
3. Our boys ten mil-lion strong a-roused by Prus-sian wrong, Now 4. When au-to-crats no more have pow'r in peace or war, And mid the crash of bat-tle all a-round! Boys, Wash-ing-ton and Lin-coln point the way. When ral-ly 'round the Red and White and Blue. Dear ev'-ry foe of Lib-er-ty is down, The ral-ly to the flag! No Am-er-i-can shall lag while Hist'-ry's might-y pen Rec-ords the deeds of men You'll flag, for ev-er wave As the sym-bol of the brave Who stars and stripes shall shine In glo-ry more di-vine De-

M1646
.K

Chorus:

Lib-er-ty lies trod-den on the ground shine in-mor-tal on her page for aye fight for all thats good and just and true mor-ra-ty with last-ing peace to crown

{ 1.-3. Sweet
4. Ves Sweet

Chorus

1.-3. Lib-er-ty we sing of thee to serve thee, our in-cen-tive be and
4. Lib-er-ty we sing of thee to serve thee, our in-cen-tive be and

1.-3 may the torch that's in thy hand the standard be of all our land to 4. may the torch that's in thy hand the standard be for ev'-ry land to

1.-3 thee our souls, our hearts we give, We'll glad-ly die if thou but live! —
4. thee our souls, our hearts we give, We'll glad-ly die if thou but live! — rit.

molto ritardando

4445.5

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10 – 12 lines.