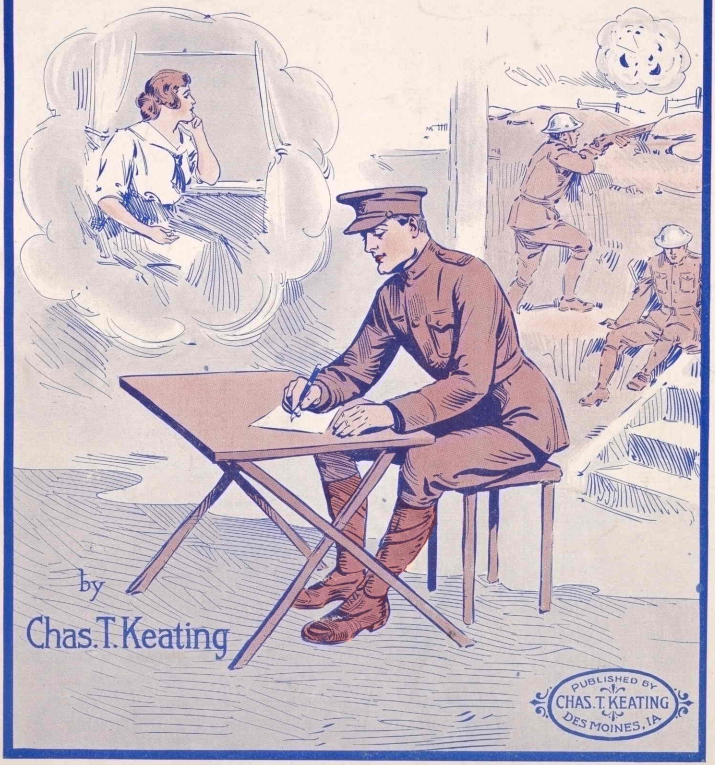
©CLE 425414 R
JUN 10 1918

AFTER THE WAR IS OVER

I'M COMING BACK TO YOU



by

Chas. T. Keating

PUBLISHED BY CHAS. T. KEATING
DES MOINES, IA

M1646
.R

AFTER THE WAR IS OVER

(I'm Coming Back to You)

By CHAS. T. KEATING

Marcia

trumpet

f

VOICE

p

When first the call of the war god, Sound-ed thru-out the land,
News from the front named the wound-ed, Jack's name was on the list,

Jack march'd a-way with his com-pa-ny Proud-ly he led them in command,
"Wound-ed while lead-ing his com-pa-ny" "Died like a he-ro" said the next,

Brave-ly they went to the bat-tle; Staunchly they faced the fray,
Sad were the days for the old folks; Sad for his sweetheart May,

Jack wrote a let-ter dai-ly, to his sweet-heart and he would say:
Then came an-oth-er let-ter, and it chased all the gloom a-way:

cresc. poco a poco f

Copyright, 1918, by Chas. T. Keating, Des Moines, Ia. Mechanical and all other rights reserved.

CHORUS

Af - ter the war is o - ver, Dear, I'm com - ing back to you, Let not a tear dim your eyes so dear, Those ten - der lov - ing eyes of deep - est blue; Re - mem - ber the day I march'd a - way, We prom - ised to be true, That's why af - ter the war is o - ver, Dear, I'm com - ing back to you. you.

p f fz D.C.

432511