When you U-S-E the U.S.A. as the U.S.A. uses you.

Words and Music by L. M. Kelley.

Moderato

Vamp

In a dug out near the Western Front, Sat a poilu and a yank, Telling tales about their native lands, After a Our friend Frenchy sat with eyes a-glow, Said it must be great I know, I mean to see your wonderous land some day, And to that hard day in a tank. Said the poilu:- "I love my gay Paree France and boys from the good U. S. A, So end I hope and pray. Though our colors are arranged dif'rently, They mean the same for li ber(er) - ty; So tell me more 'bout your grand country," Then we heard the sam - my say:- let us hope that it won't be long, Then he too joined in the song.

Chorus.

When you u - s - e the U. S. A. as the U. S. A. uses you, You will find her fair you will find her true to our colors red, white and blue; She's the home of the free and demo - ra - cy, And her progress will never lag, If you treat her right in the home or fight, You can proudly say:- "That is my flag? When you flag!"
