© CI E 467633
DEC 26 1919

See file 476 191
& requires a878-249 Dec. 30, 1919

A GOLD STAR MOTHER'S DIVERSION

Miss Ida Hyman

IN SYMPATHY OF
AND DEDICATED TO
GOLD STAR MOTHERS

Words by IDA HYMAN

Music by HARRY KELLY

Published by Ida Hyman
LOGANSPORT, INDIANA.

Each Gold Star Mother is entitled to a copy free with compliments of the publisher

M1646
.K

A Gold Star Mother's Diversion

Lyrics by MISS IDA HYMAN

Music by HARRY KELLY

Valse Lento

Ba - by eyes were sleep-y The feet were wear - y too A
A brave boy is sleep-ing Be - neath some for - eign ground Yet lit - tle boy was wear-ing His first sail-or suit of blue con - so - la - tion in her heart This moth-er so game - ly found

On his moth-er's knee he climbed As she sang his fav-rite rhyme
Clasp-ing the gold star with a sigh As she sings his lul - la - by

CHORUS

Go to sleep my lit - tle one There's three col-ors will not run

Copyright MCMXIX by Miss Ida Hyman, Logansport, Ind.

Your eyes are luck-y blue to your coun-try you'll be true While the blush-es in your cheeks are warn-ing red A sold-ier boy you'll be for Un-cle Sam This thought will thrill my heart when you're a man When na-tion's flags un-furl

Each ti-ny ring-let each ti-ny curl Will tell a he-ro's

1 2

deeds For free-dom's land land

Rayner Dalheim & Co. Chicago

480040