Till Ready

A - mer - - i - ca, we've Now girls, ------will you take heard your call now we're pre - par - ing, one and my ad - vise, If your sweet- hearts go O - ver all ----- For a nice lit-tle voy - age a-there --- here's a lit - tle thing that ev - 'ry cross the sea To fight for you and dem - girl can do En - list un - der the Red, oc - ra - cy; It won't be long ------ White and Blue; Go be a nurse------ --- be - fore we say good - bye --- We'll win or --- so with your boy's you'll be ---- A -cross the die -------- we're an - xious to be off, so don't you sea -------- For if they act wild when they are at cry ------- We want to leave at home ------ It won't be safe to once, and this is why.------- leave them there a - lone.------

Chorus.

If they are tell - ing the truth a - bout the girl - ies in France -- Hur - ry, send us o - ver there ----- Oh those Pa - ris - ian ba - bies have lots of charms And we'll all be well e - quipped with arms; We hear the girls ---- The Ger - mans tried ----

---- they all "par - lez vous" That's on-ly what we ---- hard to get there when Their wives were all a hear, and may - be it's not true; But you can home, their like most oth - er men; But you can bet we're going to find it out if they do--- bet they're nev - er going to try it a - gain--

------ Hur - ry, send us o - ver there.-----
------ If you'll send us o - ver there.-----
