

lawyer of Hardwick, Mass., and died in Springfield, Nov. 8, 1828.

This family, in the male line, is extinct. John<sup>6</sup>, the father, died March 4, 1826, aged 84 years.

SEVENTH GENERATION.

Edward<sup>7</sup> Pynchon, of the seventh generation, son of Maj. William<sup>6</sup> and Lucy<sup>6</sup> Pynchon, married, March, 1816, Susan, daughter of David Ames and of Rebecca, his wife.

They had a son, born July 11, 1818, who died in infancy.

Edward<sup>7</sup> Pynchon was for many years Register of Deeds and Treasurer of Hampden County, and died March 19, 1830, aged 56 years.

Susan Pynchon, his widow, died in Longmeadow, Oct. 18, 1872, at the age of 83 years.

William<sup>7</sup> Pynchon, of Springfield, son of Maj. William<sup>6</sup> and Lucy Pynchon, married Esther, daughter of Ebenezer Billings, of Greenfield, Mass., Dec. 3, 1812.

Their children were—

Sarah<sup>8</sup>, born Sept. 26, 1813; died March 3, 1843.

Joseph C.<sup>8</sup>, born March 3, 1815.

Daniel<sup>8</sup>, born Nov. 16, 1816; died June 13, 1871.

William<sup>8</sup>, born June 18, 1820.

Emily B.<sup>8</sup>, born Feb. 16, 1823.

John P.<sup>8</sup>, born Dec. 27, 1824. Feb. 13 1888

William<sup>7</sup>, the father, died Aug. 12, 1847, aged 71 years.

Esther, his widow, died Sept. 5, 1878, at the remarkable age of 97 yrs., 5 mos.

Stephen<sup>7</sup> Pynchon, son of Maj. William and Lucy Pynchon, was married, Jan. 10, 1799, to Sarah Trask, of Wales.

Their children were—

Lucy<sup>8</sup>, born in 1800; died March 14, 1876, unmarried.

William<sup>8</sup>, born Jan. 4, 1802; drowned in Mississippi, in 1823.