When the Ger - mans began to sink our ships, Some peo - ple thot that we'd get licked, But the U. S. A. is pret - ty slick. Look at the count-ry they de-feat-ed.

Wil - son filled the camps with our husk - y men, And gave them lots of time to drill, So as his soldiers would be sure to win, And help put vim in oth-er men.

p

Now we must thank dear old Pres-i - dent Wil - son The way he handled this af fair. See how quiet - ly he sent the boys a - cross To The Yanks suc - ceed-ed as he had planned; They took the Germans by the band. And ran them back der No Mans Land. Gee!

Rhine, What happened to the Kai - ser, why, mein gotthe's in Dutch, And they sure did put him where he wont a - mount to much. When the Yanks were de - feat-ing he start-ed re - treat-ing, He got so ex - ci - ted he beat it out of Ber - lin, He ditched his crown and me-dals and that's on the lev-el; Now that's what hap-pened to Kai - ser Bill, When the Yanks started out for the Rhine. When the Rhine.
