

Their children were—

Fanny F.<sup>9</sup> Pynchon, who married Albert M. Day, of Springfield, merchant, and afterwards banker in Chicago.

Charles<sup>9</sup> Pynchon, who died young in 1851.

Mary Cora Nellie<sup>9</sup> Pynchon was born April, 1854, and married ~~Charles~~ Mallory, a ship merchant in Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1874.

John<sup>9</sup> Pynchon, the third son, was born June 11, 1856, and is in the coal trade in Milwaukee.

George M.<sup>9</sup> Pynchon, the fourth son, was born Nov., 1862.

There was a second son, Clarence, who died in infancy.

Daniel<sup>6</sup>, the father, died, as before recorded, June 13, 1871. He was formerly a merchant in Albany, Ga., and afterwards in Springfield, where he died.

William<sup>8</sup> Pynchon, son of William and Esther of the seventh generation, lives a farmer in Springfield, and married Louisa Jane Blodgett.

Their children were—

Sarah Louisa<sup>9</sup>, born Dec. 21, A. D. 1846; married J. Johnson, a merchant.

William Edward<sup>9</sup>, born Sept. 29, A. D. 1843; lives in Adrian, Mich.

Mary Holyoke<sup>9</sup> Pynchon, born Nov. 9, 1857.

Dec 1
7. 1857
John P.<sup>6</sup> Pynchon, youngest son of William<sup>7</sup> and Esther, born, as before recorded, Dec. 27, 1824; was first a merchant in Cleveland, Ohio, and afterwards engaged in iron forging in Chicago, and married Marceline Donaldson, widow, A. D. 1882.

Pynchon
Emily B.<sup>8</sup> ~~Bliss~~, second daughter of William<sup>7</sup> and Esther Pynchon, married T. W. Bliss, merchant, and removed to Charleston, S. C.

Their children were—

Eliza R. Bliss, born Oct. 12, 1851.

Sarah P. Bliss, born Feb. 24, 1859.