JAN 22 1919 ©CLE441607

"America my Wonderland"

Words by Lyda L. Schultz

Music by Harry L. Lesley

Marcia Allo

(4) A-mer-i-ca live on for-ave a-
(3) A-gain I see the vis-ion glow with

(1) A-mer-i-ca thou wonder land where
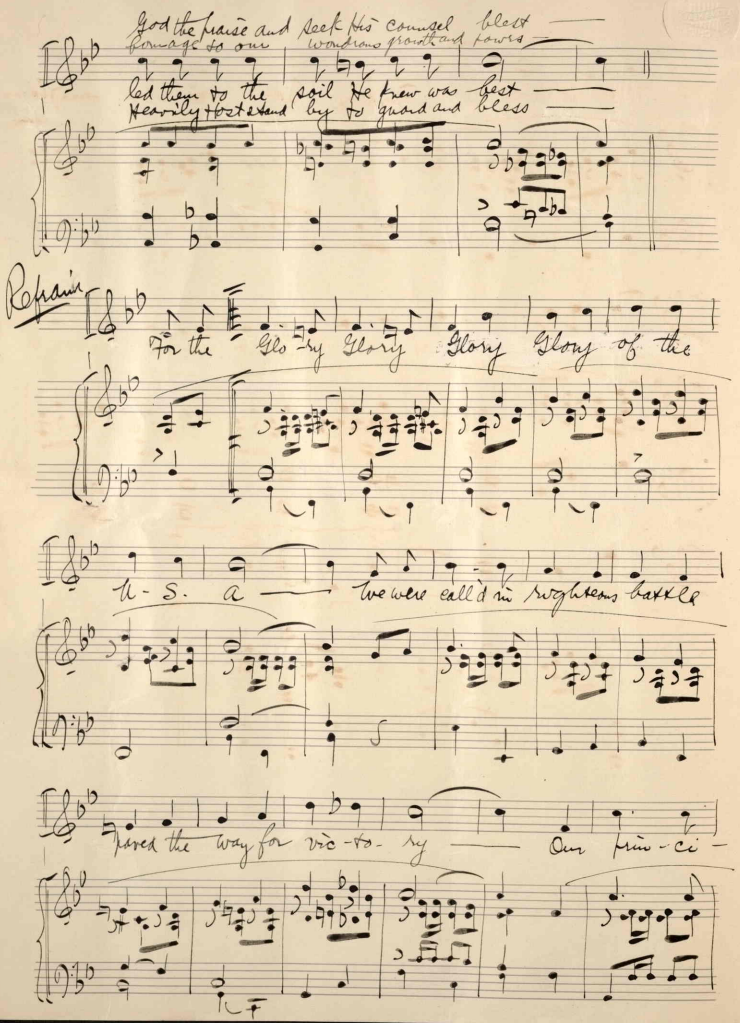
(2) mine eyes be hold a vis-ion bold amer-i-ca stand true, Guard well thy prin-ci-ples of right, the grand red white and flag of ev-ry shade, but as they near the Stars and Stripes grow smaller droop and golden dreams come true, Thy God has bless'd our nation and the grand red white and promise from on high I see our banner wondrous bright float proudly "Cross the blue stretch out thy hand to ev-ry land and succor the dis-tress'd Give-fade, now few come forth in majesty Their cause ally with ours. In blue — From north and south be call'd his own from eastern lands and west and sky — Pro-tecting 'neath its ample folds much people in dis-tress while a

M1646 L

Copyright MCMXIX by Lyda L. Schultz, Dorchester, Wisc.



God the praise and seek His counsel blest homage to our wondrous growth and powers led them to the soil He knew was best Heavily Host stand by to guard and bless Refrain
For the Glo-ry Glory Glory Glory of the U-S. a We were call'd in righteous battle paved the way for vic-to-ry Our prin-ciples - are right — Provid by God giv - en might -

— and His battles we will fight as He leads us grandly on — For the — — 448610