©CLE430504
AUG 31 1918

The Shore Line of the U. S. A.

Patriotic March Song

WRITTEN BY

GERTRUDE ELLIOTT

MUSIC BY

FRANZ LANDES

GERTRUDE ELLIOTT.

DETROIT, MICH.

H1646
.L

The Shore-Line Of the U.S.A.

Words by Gertrude Elliott

Music by Franz Landes.

March.

We did not wish for conquest when we came a-cross the sea. We came if such should be Gods will to The smile will not be jeer-ing, it will mean to you and me. We showed the world just what we'd do, to die for lib-er-ty. But if we get back safe-ly we will n'er for-get the day That our Keep our lib-er-ty. And that is why we're anx-ious to fin-ish up the fray, And glad eyes see the shore-line of the dear old U. S. A. When we get back to the fill our hearts with glad ness in the " " " " " "

mf

Chorus

rall.

Copyrighted 1918, by Gertrude Elliott, Detroit, Mich.

soil of the dear old U. S. A. We want to see your

f smiles That's why we're brave to day. We seem to hear your pray - ers, Though we are far a - way, But we'll win to bring that smile to the U. S. A. When we A.

1st 2d

437928