O stand for the col-ors, And pass the word a-long; Let's Pro-tect our ships from U-Boats, And pass the word a-long; Bring The wo-men have true cour-age, In all our land to-day; They're O wave the flag for free-dom, Yes wave it 'gainst the wrong; Let's lend a hand to Wil-son now, And make it good and strong. free-dom to a wait-ing world, O make it good and strong.

just as brave and earn-est too, As those who march a-way.
fill the hearts with cour-age true, And pass the word a-long.

Give our sol-diers cour-age, To fight for what is right, So Raise wheat, pigs and beans, boys, And pass the word a-long, 'T will Learn a use-full art, girls, The Red Cross help a-long, The Call all men our broth-ers, Who stand firm for the right, For

Rit. Chorus

lend a hand to Wil - son, And act with all our might. Then lend a hand to Wil - son, And make us good and strong. Then chick-ens feed, the gardn weed. And cheer all with a song. Then God and home and coun - try, We'll work with all our might. All lend a hand to Wil-son, Now lend a hand to Wil-son, Let's lend a hand to Wil-son, Just lend a hand to Wil-son, O lend a hand to Wil-son, We'll lend a hand to Wil-son, Now lend a hand to Wil-son, Just lend a hand to Wil-son, Now

Broad

lend a hand to Wil-son, And make it good and strong.
lend a hand to Wil-son, And make it good and strong.
lend a hand to Wil-son, And make it good and strong.
lend a hand to Wil-son, And make it good and strong.
