EDDIE CASSADY'S GREAT "WILSON" SONG

Respectfully Dedicated to our Worthy President Woodrow Wilson.

Words & Music by EDDIE CASSADY & R.P. LILLY.

Marcia Moderato.

I love to read of Wash-ing-ton, And great things he has done; I'm I'm glad we have a man like you, I'm glad you fill that chair, I'm glad to know Abe Lin-coln, boys; Is loved by ev'-ry-one. There's not the on-ly one that's pleased, They're pleased most ev'-ry-where; It's Gar-field, oft I think of him And dear Mc Kin-ley too; But true, some have made cruel re-marks, That you're too calm and slow. But Mis-ter Wood-row Wil-son, sir, My hat's off to you.

both-er not a-bout re-marks For, Wil-son you know.

CHORUS.

So let me say, to you Mis - ter Wil - son, My hat is off to you. Tho' they said you were on - ly a school - boy, You know just what to do, We all know you don't look for Glo - ry, And you've proved You're True Blue; You're the ex - am - ple of real loy - al - ty, So my hat's off to you. So let me you.

EDDIE CASSADY'S "WILSON" SONG

Written by EDDIE CASSADY.

W — Means that he is a Won - der,

O — On - ly for him, where would we be! —

O — Or - ders from him are all heed - ed,

D — Don't we know that you - and me, —

R — Read - y al - ways for du - ty,

O — "Ov - er there" they know he's right —

W — Will power, pluck and brains has he,

W — Which will make us win our fight,

I — Ill things they said a - bout him, Time tells they're all un - true, —

L — Look at the trou - ble he went through Like him there's ve - ry few —

S — Sun-shine he has brought to ma - ny, I don't care what you say, —

O — Our Mis - ter Wood - row Wil - son, boys, Is the great "Man of the day." —

N — Means no oth - er man on earth, Can real - ly tell this great man's worth, God bless the day of his dear birth, Our Wood - row Wil - son, Dan - dy.
