I

Ho!Tommy Atkins,give us your hand,
Help warp us in that war-ray land,
And by your side we'll firmly stand,
To help you fight the Kaiser.

Chorus.

Uncle Sam's awake at last,
Blow the bugle,blow a blast
On every instrument in the band
As by your side we take our stand
To help do up the Kaiser.

II

Bon jour,French Brothers,how are you?
We've come over to help you,too,
So tell us quickly what to do
To help you lick the Kaiser.

Chorus.

III

Hail!Little Belgium,warrior bold,
Your sons have proved their hearts of gold,
You could not be bought,licked or sold,
By the perfidious Kaiser.

Chorus.

Iv

We'll set you up upon your pins,
He laughs best who,at last,wins,
And for his many brutal sins
We'll send the bill to the Kaiser.

Chorus.

V

We'll send you money,we'll send you men,
We'll fight 'til victory and then
We'll bury the sword and wield the pen
To sign the fate of the Kaiser.

Chorus.

VI

We guess you thought we'd never awake,
But that,you see,was your mistake,
We're in it now to give and take,
Until we get the Kaiser.

Chorus.

VII

Then come on,brothers,all together,
Damn the odds and damn the weather,
We're firmly bound by one strong tether,
And we'll surely "strafe"Der Kaiser.

Chorus.

VIII

Oh!God of battles,hear our cry,
Give us the strength to do or die,
Decree our victory from on high,
And annihilate the Kaiser
