know-ing how sorry the Kaiser will be------ When the Allies Pump at-tic and moth-er's spry as can be------ They are out with the on him to op-er-ate up-on him; They'll cut the germ from Ger-man-y------ chick-ens and happy as the dick-ens; For our boys have taken Ger-man-y------

Oh the bells will ring and the birds will sing When the boys come march-ing home;------ Twill be simp-ly great I can hard-ly Wait Their return from o'er the foam.---- We will cel- ebrate in ev- ry state From the Gulf to far off Nome--- ---There'll be wedding chimes and the grandest times When the boys come march-ing home----
