33. Ezekiel' Goldthwaite (Ezekiel<sup>s</sup>, Samuel<sup>s</sup>, Thomas<sup>s</sup>), of Smithfield, R. I., and Sutton, Mass., born at Salem about 1706, baptized (1st church) July 4, 1707, married (int. pub. Jan. 23, 1730, 1), EUNICE CUTLER of Salem, probably the daughter,* born Nov. 30, 1705, of Dea. Samuel and Sarah (Satle) Cutler. They settled early in Smithfield, R. I., where "Ezekiel Goldthayt of Salem, mariner," bought of Joseph Cook, Dec. 11, 1733, 85 acres lying along the Branch River. This he with his wife Eunice sold five years later, about the same time buying another homestead adjoining that of his brother Samuel. He sold out in Smithfield, June 12, 1741, and appears in Salem again in 1745 and 1746, next probably settling in Sutton. The old Goldthwaite record locates him there, and says that he had no male heirs. The following marriage in Uxbridge town records may be that of Ezekiel's widow, or more probably of their daughter, named for her.

"Thomas Legg and Eunice Gouldthwait married Feb. 4, 1768, by John Harwood Justi Pacies."

* I can find no authority for the statement in the Cutler Genealogy that Eunice was unmarried in 1733; she was Eunice Cutler in her father's will, made Jan. 4, 1730, but that was before her marriage intention was published.
