109. Benjamin^o Goldthwaite (Joseph^h, John^h, Samuel^h, Thomas^h), of Boston, born there Aug. 6, 1737, married (int. pub. June 11, 1759) SARAH WHITE DAWES of Boston.

Mr. Goldthwaite was a merchant, having a "Ladies first classshop" on Cornhill, where he resided. He had a country home also in Sudbury. He died quite suddenly at the age of 45, in March, 1782, and his widow in Feb., 1787, five years later, at the age of 51. His will, made March 6, 1782, mentions each of his seven children then living, and his wife. His inventory amounted to £1,402, 3s. During the siege of Boston the family were in Newton, where one of the children was born. The experience of the mother in leaving the town has been told in the account of Maj. Joseph Goldthwaite. The children were mostly baptized in the New Brick Church; their births, as here given, were from a record made by their father in a volume of Dr. Watt's Sermons; children :

the last century, and engaged in the drug business. It is said of him, "his business proved unsuccessful, and, Jan. 2, 1798, the partnership of Goldthwait and Moore was dissolved. Their store was on the corner of 2d and Walnut Streets." This Mr. Goldthwait, partner of Maj. Moore, was the writer of the above letter, his name. Winkles B.[orden?], being that, probably, of a brother of his mother, spelt Winchels in the (printed) record of his birth at Newport.

In tracing the descendants of Samuel Goldthwaite, I have had valuable help from Miss Ella C. Campbell of Washington, whose acquaintance with Baltimore enabled her to find for me Mrs. Owings, whom she visited not long before her death; she has since found and copied the Goldthwaite tombstone inscriptions in the Baltimore cemetery here used.
