152. Lieut. Henry<sup>6</sup> Goldthwaite (Thomas<sup>4</sup>, John<sup>5</sup>, Samuel<sup>2</sup>, Thomas<sup>1</sup>), of Walthamstow and Bampton, England, born in Chelsea, Mass., March 29, 1759, married in England, SARAH WINCH of Bampton, Oxon. Henry's name is found as one of the garrison of Fort Pownal, Oct. 23, 1775, in their petition for pay. He afterwards joined the British army, remaining in America, probably in that service, for some years after most of his family had taken up their abode in England. The records of the British War Office show that he was ensign, Independent Co. of Invalids, Nov. 13, 1793; lieutenant, Royal Garrison Battalion, Sept. 9, 1795; and lieutenant, half pay, Oct. 31, 1796.* He died at sea, in the Mediterranean, early in 1800, administration on his estate being granted Apr. 24th of that year to Sarah Goldthwaite, his widow. Their home was at that time at Bampton, Oxfordshire. Mrs. Goldthwaite married a second time, and her two young sons came to Stratford, near London, where they
