The membrane means a parchment and verso, the back of it. The smallest number was of the latest date—so that No. 16 was most ancient. Robert de Duddlele was the Vicar first, and Robert Dudley was the second Vicar mentioned. Sir John de Clinton, Kt., bore for his arms, Or, three piles Azure, and a canton Ermine, as by his seal and other authorities appeareth.

He married Alice, dau. of Sir Robt. de Grenden, Kt. by whom he had issue John his son and heir, who 5 Edw. 2, was a Kt. and bore for his arms, Ar, upon a chief Az. two flowers de lices Or as his grandfather did, and d. 27 Edw. III, leaving issue by his wife, (dau. of Sir Roger Hillary, Kt.) Joane his dau. and heir within age, who first became the wife of Sir John Mountfort, Kt., by which means the lordship of Colshill devolved to that family; secondly, of Sir John Sutton Kt. (Lord of Dudley) and thirdly of Sir Henry Griffith of Wichnoure, Kt. This Sir John de Montfort was the illegitimate son of Peter de Montfort of Baldesert, Co. Warwick. Joane, his widow, held the lordship during her life, and 45 Edw. III., being wife then of Sir Henry Griffith, entailed it upon his issue by her, and, for lack of such issue, upon John, Son of Sir John de Sutton, and the heirs of his body, and, for lack of such issue upon Baldwin de Montfort, son of Sir John de Montfort, her first husband.—Dug. Hist. of War.
