This will was proved by the oaths of Nath'l Trask & Moses Swasey the 30th day of July 1766 & on the 18th of Augt. then next following the Codicil was proved by the oaths of said Trask & Hawley Marshall in common form :

CODICIL.

Whereas I made the before written Will y^e 25th day of March 1763, which I do now ratify and confirm excepting what I have in this Codicil particularly mentioned, viz.—That I gave to my wife Elizabeth Dudley the use and improvement of my stock of cattle, sheep swine horses, and after the decease or second marriage of my wife Elizabeth Dudley aforesaid, I gave the same to my daughters Sarah Robinson and Betty Hill, and to my Grandson John Dudley,—I do now give and bequeath the said stock of cattle, sheep, swine and horses to my said wife Elizabeth Dudley to dispose of as she shall think proper, and in case she should not dispose of y^e same in her life time then what stock is left at her decease my will is y^t y^e same shall be divided equally, and I do give y^e same to be equally divided between my son Nicholas Dudley and my Grandson John Dudley. I also give to my said Grandson John Dudley a good feather bed and bedding suitable for ye same to be delivered him by my Executor immediately after the decease or second marriage of my wife.

In witness whereof I do hereunto set my hand and seal this thirteenth day of June, Anno que Domini 1766, and in y^e sixth year of his Majestie's Reign.
