

N. Y., and died, honored and respected, Oct. 10, 1856, aged 61 years. In personal appearance he was fine looking, with dark eyes and hair, which never faded. He dying intestate, Nathan Shaw, and Charicy Evans his widow, were appointed administrators of his estate Nov. 7, 1856.

Charicy Scribner, the widow, was a remarkably intelligent woman, and one of rare excellence in many ways. She was a great reader and had a good memory. She was kind to the poor, sociable, and liberal, being well versed in history and literature. Her father was Peter Scribner of Poultney, Vt., a man of wealth and a noted philanthropist, cousin to Col. Benjamin Scribner of New Hampshire, and Isaac, author of "Legends of Laconia," Lowell, Mass., and John Scribner, author of "Scribner's Ready Reckoner." They were remotely related to Hon. Daniel Webster. Peter Scribner's father Samuel was born in Salisbury, N. H., and was descended from Benjamin Scrivner or Scribner and Hannah Crompton, who were married at Norfolk, Ct., 1683. The family was formerly called "Scrivener" and lived in Hampshire Co., Eng.

Children of Shercbiah Evans, Jr. :

i. JAMES FRANKLIN,<sup>7</sup> b. 1817, at Poultney, Vt.; a farmer; member of the Baptist church of Ellwood, Ill. His three children were: 1, George<sup>8</sup>; 2, Laura, graduate of Joliet High School; 3, Charlotte, graduate of Joliet High School. ii. LAURA A., b. May 5, 1823; m. Nathan Shaw of Jordan, N. Y., 1839, who d. 1875. She d. Jan. 28, 1889. Mr. Shaw was b. Aug. 27, 1817, and d. Nov. 9, 1875; son of Benjamin, a soldier of the war of 1812. iii. GEORGE W., b. 1824, at P.; conductor on the Illinois Central R. R. several years, and hotel proprietor; died at Hannibal, Mo., and buried at Jordan, N. Y., with Masonic rites, s. p. iv. HARRISON E., a carpenter, and salesman in the dry goods business at Joliet, Ill., and Jordan, N. Y. He m. 1st, Harriet Balch, and 2d, Jennie Clark, 1864, and had: 1, Harrison,<sup>8</sup> and 2, Jay, both d. young; 3, Helen May, b. Feb. 24, 1859, m. Wm. F. Clark, grocer of Oswego, N. Y., May 28, 1884. She died of consumption Feb. 9, 1888. She was a fine artist and an accomplished lady, s. p. v. HELEN, d. young. vi. NANCY, d. young. vii. CHARLOTTE, b. 1831; m. Cornelius Emerick of Jordan, N. Y., of Holland ancestry. They had: Alice Cornelia,<sup>8</sup> b. Oct. 11, 1850, m. Feb. 23, 1872, Charles M. Warner, and they had Grove Emerick,<sup>9</sup> b. May 16, 1876, Charles Blane, b. June 24, 1878, Arthur L. Dudley, b. July 15, 1884. viii. ANN, m. George Warner, Dec. 5, 1845, a farmer and carpenter. She d. July 25, 1847, leaving two daughters, viz.: 1, Helen,<sup>9</sup> m. James Sloane, a native of England, farmer of Elbridge, N. Y., and they have Frederick,<sup>10</sup> b. Oct. 31, 1856, Anna, b. Aug. 23, 1873, Mary B., b. June 11, 1882. ix. JOHN LAKIN, sometime grocer