 JOSEPH, 1657; " Sarah Ring.

NOTE.

STEPHEN JORDAN came in the Mary and John, in the company of Rev. Thomas Parker, from Wiltshire, England, which sailed from Southampton with Capt. Robert Sayers, March, 1634, and arrived at Boston, May 24, 1634. Little is known about his family; his daughter Jane married Lieut. John Andrews and another daughter, Hannah, married Robert Cross of Chebacco. It is probable that he was first married before coming to this country, but nothing has been found relative to the mother of his children. He settled in Ipswich, Mass. where he was a proprietor, 1636; herd keeper, 1645. Sold his land at Ipswich, 1653 and moved to Newbury, Mass. Married Susannah, widow of Nathaniel Merrill of Newbury; probably his second wife, but not the mother of his children. He died Newbury, Feb. 8, 1669. His widow died Jan. 25, 1672.

WILL

The last will and testament of Stephen Jordan of Newbury, in the County of Essex, written this fifth of April, One thousand six hundred and sixty seven; having through God's grace perfect sense & memory.

First. I commend my soule to God that gave it & my body to the earth in assured hope of the resurrection of the just & for what estate the Lord hath given me I dispose of as followeth:

First. I give to my daughter Cross, fifteen pounds which is in her husband's hands already.

Also, I give to my daughter Andrews of Ipswich fifteen pounds which is in her husband's hands already.

For my house & land in Newbury, I give it to my wife during her naturall life & after her decease I give it to Stephen Cross, the son of Robert Cross of Ipswich, my son-in-law. Two cows I give to my wife; halfe my household goods I give also to my wife & the other halfe to my two sons Robert Cross and John Andrews equally divided. My will is that Stephen Cross shall give to my kinswoman & my grand child Elizabeth Andrews out of the land above given unto him the sum of £5.

Signed with my hand this 5 Apr: 1667.
