

7. ELIHU⁶ ALLEN (Daniel,⁴ Samuel,⁵ Nehemiah,² Samuel¹), born in Litchfield, Conn., May 4, 1739; died at the residence of his son Josiah in Dunham, Que., Feb. 27, 1820, and was buried in Trinity Cemetery, St. Armond, Que.; married at Cornwall, Conn., Jan. 4, 1759,

ABIGAIL DEAN, born at Stamford, Conn., Aug. 8, 1737. After their marriage they resided at Cornwall until 1776, when he removed to Williston, Vt., and was one of the first settlers there. The settlers were forced to leave the new settlement by the invasion of the British from Canada and did not return until after the war. The town of Williston was organized in 1786. When driven from Williston he moved to Salisbury, Vt., where he lived till the close of the war, when he returned to Williston and was residing there in 1790, according to the Census of the United States taken that year. He afterwards lived a few years in Wallingford, Vt., and still later in the state of New York. He lived with his son Josiah in Dunham, Que., where he died in 1820. The children were all born in Cornwall excepting the youngest two, Heman and Lucy. He served as a soldier in the Revolutionary War at different times, as shown elsewhere by copy of Certificate of Adjutant General of the State of Vermont.
