

RICHARD MONROE DUNHAM was born at Sheffield, Pa., in 1849. He obtained his education at the common schools, and at Lewisburg, Pa., and Pittsburgh, Pa. He was afflicted with asthma and was never robust. He was in the lumbering business for a number of years, residing at Cherry Grove, Pa. He married

FLORA A. WRIGHT, in 1871, a daughter of William Wright of Crawford County. After their marriage he purchased a farm in Crawford County, where he resided for some time, but on account of his health and the climate he found it impossible to remain in that part of the country, so he sold his farm and spent a few years in Colorado, where he was engaged in the mercantile business at Boulder. Becoming somewhat improved in health he removed to Sheffield, Pa., at which place he was a clerk in the store of Horton, Crary & Co., for a number of years. Later he built a house in the western part of the village of Sheffield, residing there until his death. He died at Southern Pines, N. C., to which place he had gone in order to improve his health. Mrs. Dunham survived him nine years. She died at Sheffield, Pa., in 1913. They were buried in Oakland Cemetery, Warren, Pa.
