The Will of Joseph Hills is dated Sept. 14, 1687. Proved at Ipswich, March 14, 1687-8. Scaled and recorded at Boston, March 23, 1687-8. It is recorded Lib. 10, fol. 241, in Suffolk Probate Records. Its existence there is supposed to be accounted for by the fact, that Sir Edmond Andros, among many other acts of arbitrary power, obliged the people of the whole Colony of Massachusetts Bay to have their Wills recorded at Boston.

Joseph Hills describes himself as "late of Malden, now of Newbury;" but in the Probate he is called "Joseph Hills of Malden." [He died in Newbury; for he makes a bequest to "this town of Newbury." He speaks of his wife Ann, his sons Gershom, Wait, and Samuel, as then living; his daughter, Hannah, also living and unmarried; and his grandchildren Hannah and Elizabeth Blanchard, Hannah Winton,* and Samuel Green. To each of the two last he gives forty-five acres of upland, and five of meadow out of his farm in Dunstable. He gives forty shillings to "this town of Newbury" for the purchase of a bell for the meeting-house, on condition that the inhabitants make it up to thirty pounds or more, within three years after his decease. His son Samuel Hills and son-in-law Abiel Long are made executors; the overseers of the Will were Lieut. Tristram Coffin and Capt. Daniel Pierce. These four lived and died in Newbury.

* Joshua Coffin, Esq., the historian of Newbury, who is perfectly at home in such matters, says, in a letter to me respecting this Will,—"I am satisfied that Vinton is the right name; if the original is in existence, you will probably find Vinton and not Winton in it." I have made a thorough search for the original among the old files of the Suffolk Probate Registry, but it is nowhere to be found.
