

married Thomas A. Marshall, who was born in Woodford county, Kentucky, January 16, 1794, and died April, 1872. He commenced the practice of law in Paris, Kentucky, and represented Bourbon county several years in the Kentucky Legislature, and Bourbon District two terms in House of Representatives in Congress. He was appointed Judge of the Court of Appeals, and remained on the bench, by appointment, from 1835 to 1857, when the new Constitution went into operation, when he was elected for a term of six years. At the commencement of the late civil war, he was elected a member of the House of Representatives, Kentucky Legislature, and in 1866 was appointed by Gov. Leslie to fill the vacancy on the bench of the Court of Appeals, occasioned by the death of Judge Simpson, and served one year.

CHILDREN.

Thomas A. Marshall, Anna Maria Marshall, Charles S. Marshall, John H. Marshall, Humphrey Marshall, Nannette Marshall.

Thomas A. Marshall, eldest son of Eliza Price and Hon. Thomas A. Marshall, graduated at Kenyon College, Ohio, and afterwards in the Law Department of Transylvania, Lexington, Kentucky. After practicing law several years in Vicksburg, Mississippi, he moved to Cole county, Illinois, and engaged in his profession and banking, until the commencement of the civil war, during which he served as colonel of a Federal regiment. He was for a time postmaster in Vicksburg, Mississippi, but returned to his home in Illinois, and continued in his former business, until his death in 1874. He married Miss Ellen Miles, of Paris, Kentucky.

CHILDREN.

William S. Marshall, Eliza Marshall, James M. Marshall, Thomas A. Marshall, Charles T. Marshall, John Hart Marshall.

William S. Marshall, eldest son of Thomas A. Marshall and Ellen Miles, married Miss Nellie Parcelles, of Illinois.

CHILDREN.

Kate Marshall, Edward Marshall.