

CHILDREN.

Susan McDowell, Sallie McDowell, Mary McDowell, Brant McDowell.

Sarah Brant, second daughter of Sarab Benton and Colonel Brant, died, aged fifteen.

Thomas Benton, second son of Samuel Benton and Miss Hunter, a resident of Iowa, married and died, leaving one daughter, Maria Benton.

Nathaniel Benton, third son of Samuel Benton and Miss Hunter, unmarried.

Anne Benton, second daughter of Samuel Benton and Miss Hunter, married Rev. William S. Potts, a distinguished Presbyterian clergyman of St. Louis, Missouri, where he was a pastor many years.

Samuel Benton, fourth son of Samuel Benton and Miss Hunter, settled at Holly Springs, where he engaged in journalism, law and politics, but at the commencement of the civil war, he entered the Confederate service and was wounded at the battle of Perryville and Shiloh, and died from the effects of these wounds. After the battle of Perryville, he was removed, through the influence of Colonel R. T. Jacob, to Louisville, and kindly cared for in Col. Jacob's own hotel. He married Miss Knox, of Holly Springs, who was reared by her uncle, Judge Mills. Mrs. Benton still survives her husband.

CHILDREN.

Samuel Benton, a student at Princeton, New Jersey, Willie Benton, a daughter, at Vassar College, New York.

Mary Benton, third daughter of Samuel Benton and Miss Hunter, married Colonel Warren, of Texas.

Francis Benton, fifth son of Samuel Benton and Miss Hunter, was killed at Richmond, Virginia.

Nathaniel Benton, fourth son of Anne Gocch and Jesse Benton, married Miss Branch.