

Eliza Dickinson one negro man called Anthony now in her possession, Item - I give and bequeath to my Grandson John Dickinson one negro called Charles now in his father's possession. Item - I give and bequeath to my Grandson Arthur Dickinson one negro called Furrie now in his father's possession, Item - I give and bequeath to my granddaughter Eliza Dickinson one negro called Sarah now in her father's possession, Item - I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary Jones one pistole for a ring, allso all the cotton I have in the house unspun, allso the yarn & thread that is spun, my will is that my executors, after my debts are paid, purchase two negro girls out of the profits of my estate, one for my granddaughter Mary Jones, which I give to them and their heirs, also that my executors deliver to my Granddaughter Prissilla Jones one thousand pounds of fattened pork this ensuing year for the use of her and her sisters, I allso give the use of my negro girl Sillah to my granddaughter Mary Jones untill my executors shall purchase the negro above emntioned.

Item - I give and bequeath to my granddaughters Prissilla, Martha, and Mary Jones what household goods I purchased of their father's estate to be equally divided between them three after their mother's decease who I give the use of them during her life, I allso give to my three said granddaughters my negro man called great Charles to be equally divided between them three, allso each of them a Cow & Calf, Item - I give and bequeath to my Grandson William Morris that part of the tract of land whereon I now live called Bull-neck with the plantation thereon sand the land adjoining between Cattail swamp and middle swamp, allso the stock of cattle and hogs thereunto belonging, allso nine negroes viz: Morgan, Jackco, Toney, little Charles, Patt, Jerry, Fanny, Ombie and Tom, These slaves with the land before-mentioned I give to him and his heirs with this proviso that his father Sylvanus Morris nor his heirs execu tors shall not in any wise claim any right of title to my estate given away in this will, or bring any suit relating therto, and that if my said son should claim any right before-mentioned, then my will is that the above-mentioned land slaves and stock of cattle and hogs shall go and be for the use of my daughter Theodocia Morris and her heirs, Item- I give and bequeath to my Grandson Richard Morris that part of the tract of land whereon I now live called Ben's with the plantation and land adjoining between middle swamp and Ben's swamp allso eight negroes viz: Ben, Old Judy, Roger, Sarah, Sam, Peter, Ned & Sillah, allso the stock of cattle and hogs land and stock before-mentioned I give to him and his heirs with this proviso that his father Sylvanus Morris nor his heirs or executors shall not in any wise claim any right or title to my estate given away in this will or bring any suit relating thereto, and that if my said son should claim any right as before-mentioned then my will is that the above-mentioned slaves land and stock shall go and be for the use of my daughter Theodocia Morris. My will and desire is that my executors board my daughter Theodocia Morris at the Reverend Robert Barret's and that her board be paid out of the profits of my estate, My will is that my executors do sell my land at Ducking-hole containing four hundred and fifty acres Allso four hundred acres at the Round-about and my part of the land in Amella County which I am to have in partnership with Saml. Cobb Gent; and others, and the money arising from the sale of these lands be applied Toward discharging my debts, I give and bequeath to my Grandson William Morris four silver spoons now in his father's possession, Item - I give and bequeath to my grandson John Morris all the household goods at my home plantation not before given away. Item - I give and bequeath to my daughters Mary Jones, Martha Morris, and Theodocia Morris that white linning I have in the house to be equally divided between them three, Item - I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary Jones, all the check linning I have in the house, Item I give and bequeath to Adam Chisholme my wearing aparel, Item - I give and bequeath to James Power Gent: Twenty pounds current money to defend my estate as an attorney and if his fees should amount to more than he be paid out of the profits of my estate. My will is that my Grandsons William, John, and Richard Morris shall not receive nor be possessed with their estates given them by me in this will, untill they arrive at the age of twenty one years, and that after my debts and Legacys are paid, the money arising from the profits of the estate be put to interest, and paid to my three Grandsons when they arrive at the age above mentioned, I appoint William Dabney a trustee to manage