

family, Barton Flagler, of Kinderhook, Col. Co., N. Y.), Richard Horace Dodge, Elizabeth Helen Dodge, Cornelia Adeline Dodge, and Edward Lane Dodge (the youngest).

My grandfather resided in early life in White Plains, Westchester Co., N. Y., afterwards removed to Dutchess Co., N. Y., and was a physician. My father was a physician also. My grandfather's family was very numerous, I do not remember how many brothers and sisters he had. I have heard my father say that he had an aunt living in Brooklyn, N. Y., who had a genealogical tree of the family, etc.

I am, yours truly,

JOHN A. DODGE,

The Dodge family are to have a convention of all their name in Salem, Mass., the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the landing of Wm. Dodge and others of his name,

MILBURN, BALLARD Co., KENTUCKY,

July 23d, 1879.

TO THE SECRETARY OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DODGE FAMILY, SALEM, MASS:

DEAR SIR,—From the inclosed newspaper clipping, I see there is to be a meeting of the Dodge family, and as it is impossible for me to be in attendance, and being desirous of learning of the meeting, I write, asking that the proceedings of the meeting be forwarded me, if not asking too much. I would like to have the genealogy of the family, as I am satisfied we are of the same branch spoken of. I will send, inclosed, our genealogy as far back as I can go, and am sorry I cannot run it back further. Please send me a newspaper report if none other, and much oblige

Yours very truly,

THADDEUS L. DODGE.

Daniel Dodge, my grandfather on my paternal side, was an only son and child, whose father was killed near Long Island (so I am
