

you would have heard from me Sooner, however I now send you such Discharge as will satisfie M^r Fisher, which when you have executed please to return either to him or me by the Post, and he will directly remitt you the Money. I am

“ Sir, Your very humble Serv^t

“ THO: HOLME.

“ WELLINGBOROUGH, April 12th 1759.”

In Franklin's "Journal," from which later on are presented some memorandums and entries, is also to be found the following details of the settlement of "Cousin Fisher's" estate:

“ Here follows sundry Entries taken from Acc^t Receipts, Letters, & other Memorand^o of prior Dates, & which ought to have been entered before.

“ Copy of Acc^t rendered by the Rev^d M^r Fisher of Wellingborough, who gave Bond with the Administratrix for the due Distribution of Mrs. Fisher's personal Estate, viz^t [For copy of original MS. account see p. 11.]

Continuing, Franklin records:

“ Note.—Mrs. Fisher's Effects were to be distributed among her Relations of equal Degree, which are as follows.

“ Mrs. Ann Farrow Daughter of John Franklin	} All Children of Thomas Franklin, whose Granddaughter Mrs. Fisher was.
Mrs. Eleanor Morris Daughter of Hannah Franklin
Mr. Samuel Franklin of Boston Son of Benj ⁿ Franklin
Mrs. Elisabe th Dowse Daughter of Mr. Peter Franklin Son of Mrs. Jane Mecom Daughter of and myself Son of

“ I gave my Share to be divided between Mrs. Farrow & Mrs. Morris two poor ancient Women; the other Shares belonging to Relations in America are in my Hands, viz.