

Towards the east end of the chancell on the north side is raised a faire and large stone monument where the statues of Richard Perkins, Esq., and the Lady Merwyn his wife were made kneeling before a deske but now broken downe.

FIG. 5.

At the top of the Monument is this Coat and Crest.

RICHARD PERKINS.

On the two pillars which stand on each side the Monument,

