

recorded as such. Witness my hand and seal the seventh day of November, Anno Domini, 1850.

GEO. W. ASH,
Ald. [SEAL]

Recorded Nov. 9, 1850."

After the conveyance, two lots were purchased in South Laurel Hill Cemetery, Section 2, Nos. 195 and 196,* which were conveyed to the said Loughhead and Fidler, as trustees, for the use of the descendants of Dr. Pfeiffer. Since their death, no successors have been appointed.

January 23, 1851, the remains of Dr. Pfeiffer and other members of his family were removed from the private burial-ground to the new lots in South Laurel Hill Cemetery, where they at present repose.

His wife died August 30, 1817, and was buried in her husband's burial-ground, the following being her epitaph :

ANN MARGARET PFEIFFER,
Relict of Dr. J. Pfeiffer, departed this life August 30th 1817,
in the 90th year of her age.

"Lord, what is my hope; truly my hope is even in thee."

PSAL. xxxix. 7.

Her remains were removed at the same time as her husband's to the present lot in South Laurel Hill Cemetery.

There are two miniatures of Dr. Pfeiffer, one in possession of Mrs. James Moore Bryant, of Philadelphia, and the other in possession of Mr. Edgar Isaiah Smith, of Philadelphia. The writer had two oil portraits copied from these, one for the late Mayor Fidler and the other for himself. The frontispiece is reproduced from the miniature in possession of Mrs. Bryant.

The children of Dr. Pfeiffer and Margaret his wife, as ascertained from his Bible and will, were as follows :

2. Margaret.
3. Elizabeth.
4. Joseph, b. July 13, 1762; d. July 16, 1762.†

* See Interment Book, No. 2, page 636, at Cemetery's Office.

† See Dr. Pfeiffer's Bible.