

land, Maine. Rev. Petrus S. Ten Broeck died at Danvers, Mass., Jan. 21, 1849.

Mrs. Ten Broeck died at Clinton, Iowa, Oct. 12, 1861.

There were born of this marriage three sons and four daughters, viz:

Peter Gerard Stuyvesant, M. D., surgeon U. S. Army, married Mary Octavia Woodbury, of Portland, Maine, and died in that city.

William Cutter, (Bowdoin College 1849,) lawyer, who died unmarried at Portland, Maine.

Edward Payson, now residing in Chicago, Illinois, married Mary A. Deane, of Portland, Maine. This son is the only living male descendant of this branch of the Ten Broeck family, bearing the family name.

Cornelia Stuyvesant, married George E. B. Jackson and resides in Portland, Maine.

Lucretia Mitchell, married Nathaniel B. Baker and resides in Des Moines, Iowa.

Harriet Cutter, married Francis B. Peabody and resides in Chicago, Illinois.

Helena Louisa, married Thomas Franklin and resides in New York City.

IV. STEPHEN PHILIP VAN RENSSELAER, M. D., born December 21, 1813, "baptized by the Rector of S. Mark's church in the Bowery, Dec. 27, 1813. The Patroon, Stephen