

Navy five per cents. John Innes, Purser in the navy. Jan., 1817-12. Unclaimed in 1822.

INNES, Wm., who, in beginning of 1811, was living in Grosvenor Sq., in County of Middlesex, or his representatives, will apply to Mr. Halifax, Solicitor, 88 Chancery Lane, and they will hear of advantage. N. B. Said Wm. Innes was a bachelor, and supposed to have been a Scotchman, and to have died many years ago. London Gazette, 1833.

INNES, Margaret, spinster, afterwards named Wright, sister of Sir David Innes. Her next of kin will hear something of advantage. Times, July 25, 1822.

INNES, Elizabeth, of Edinburgh, widow of George Innes. Her children will hear of advantage. Times, July 30, 1822.

INNES, Jane, spinster, afterwards named Geddes, daughter of Sir James Innes, baronet. Her children wanted. Times, July 30, 1822.