

Benjamin Faneuil Bethune Mitchel died unmarried.
 Eliza Mitchel, MRS. MONTGOMERY, of Philadelphia, left one son.

Penelope Mitchel, MRS. COCKRAN, numerous descendants.

Susan Mitchel, MRS. MAKEPEACE, of Baltimore, one son, viz.:

B. MITCHEL MAKEPEACE and daughter, Susan Makepeace.

SUSAN BETHUNE, MRS. EDMOND DUNKIN,* Philadelphia, four sons and three daughters, viz.:

BETHUNE DUNKIN, unmarried.

GEORGE BETHUNE DUNKIN, officer in East India Company's service, died young.

BENJAMIN FANEUIL DUNKIN, Chief Justice of the State of South Carolina. Numerous descendants.

JOHN DUNKIN, died unmarried.

ELIZA INGLIS DUNKIN, died unmarried.

ANN BETHUNE DUNKIN, MRS. ADAMS, Waltham,
 Mass., one son and two daughters.

SUSAN LETITIA DUNKIN, unmarried.

PENELOPE BETHUNE, MRS. ENGLISH, three sons and one daughter, viz.:

MARY FANEUIL ENGLISH, died unmarried.

GEORGE BETHUNE ENGLISH, died unmarried.

COL. THOMAS STANHOPE ENGLISH, has an only daughter, Mrs. Blunt.

JAMES LLOYD ENGLISH, has one son.

JANE BETHUNE, MRS. WILLIAM HUNT,† Watertown, Mass., two sons and two daughters, viz.

GEORGE BETHUNE HUNT, died unmarried, aged 23 years.

BENJAMIN FANEUIL HUNT, three sons and one daughter.

* Edmond Dunkin was a younger brother of Sir William Dunkin, Chief Justice of India; during our revolutionary war, Edmond Dunkin, while on his way to India to join his brother, was taken prisoner and brought into Boston. There he married Susan Bethune. Afterwards they removed to Philadelphia, where the present Judge Dunkin, of South Carolina, was born.

† For further account of descendants, see Records of the Hunt family, also of the Weisse family.