

beautiful mirrors and picture-frames adorn so many of our parlors, is a descendant of the Concord Merriams. Their children were :

FOURTH GENERATION.

Mary Hubbard,	born April 3, 1682.
Jonathan “	“ June 18, 1683.
Hannah “	“ April 20, 1685.
Samuel “	“ April 27, 1687. d 12 Dec 1753 mar
Joseph “	“ Feb. 8, 1689. - (1) Sarah Clarke (2)
Elizabeth “	“ June 16, 1691. Prudence Temple
John “	“ March 12, 1693.
Daniel “	“ Nov. 20, 1694.
THOMAS “	“ Aug. 27, 1696.
Abigail “	“ Jan. 23, 1698.
Ebenezer “	“ Dec. 28, 1700.

FIFTH GENERATION.

NATHAN HUBBARD, only son of Thomas and Mary, was born at Concord, Mass., February 23d, 1723-4. He removed to Groton, and bought a farm about two miles south of the meeting-house, on the Harvard road, now occupied by Mr. Alvah Wright. “He was a man of estimable qualities in all the relations of life—kind, benevolent, and hospitable, and his character was irreproachable. He was a fine-looking old gentleman, and quite aristocratic in his appearance, when over seventy years of age.” (Letter of Mrs. Anna H. Clough, his granddaughter.)

He married Mary Patterson April 2d, 1745, and their children were :

SIXTH GENERATION.

—THOMAS,* born Dec. 28, 1745; died May 25, 1807.

Nathan, “ June 2, 1747.

* “I remember my father, Thomas Hubbard, as a very social and intellectual man, and he had many moral excellencies. He was noted for his