

of the Merrimack River and the mountain scenery from the house is very fine. He also has a cottage at Rye Beach, where his family spend the summer months. Our father and mother closed their lives at his home, surrounded with every comfort that an affectionate son and his devoted wife could bestow. For several years he was an alderman, and for two consecutive years was elected a representative of the city of Manchester in the New-Hampshire Legislature.

William Hubbard, born at Hollis, N. H., November 3d, 1821. He died at Fall River, Mass., in 1848.

Sarah Elizabeth Hubbard, born at Hollis, N. H., October 30th, 1824.

---

Amos Hubbard married Mary Walton Hartshorn, October 14th, 1811. She was born at Amherst, N. H., March 26th, 1784, and died, on the farm where she was born, July 20th, 1868, aged 84 years, 3 months, and 24 days. Their children were :

Amos Hubbard, born May 17th, 1813. He has long resided at Ashton, Illinois, and was married in November, 1868.

Eliza Ann Hubbard, born December 24th, 1814, and died February 6th, 1835, aged 20 years, 1 month, and 13 days.

Mary Frances Hubbard, born October 26th, 1816.

Nancy D. Hubbard, born November 8th, 1818, and died March 4th, 1847, aged 28 years, 3 months, and 26 days.

William Hartshorn Hubbard, twin of the last named, born November 9th, 1818. He resides on the farm where his mother was born, which is remarkable for its fine fruit. He has recently built a new house and greatly improved the other buildings.

Lucy Moor Hubbard, born February 2d, 1821.

Sarah Thorp Hubbard, born February 25th, 1828.