34. (10) EBENEZER, b. at Ashfield, Mass., in Jan., 1776, baptized Feb. 18, 1776, lived some of his minority with his oldest brother, Jasher, at Lenox, Mass., m. Lucinda Boardman at Chateaugay, N. Y., in 1804, where he resided till the spring of 1814.

During the winter of 1813-14, the settlers in the Chateaugay, (N. Y.) wilderness were much disturbed and harrassed by the marching of the hostile forces along the old turnpike. Early in March, 1814, while the British army was retreating to Canada, the horses of (34) Ebenezer Taylor were stolen and only by a persistent pursuit into Canada and an appeal to a high officer was he able to recover them. Then, being obliged to return along by-roads on account of the enemy, it was nearly morning before he reached home. Calling up his wife and children he said, "give us breakfast and we'll leave this country." Packing a few necessary articles on a sled he drove the same day to South Hero, Vt., where for five years he resided on the West shore, opposite and in sight of Plattsburg. Here on the 11th day of September, 1814, he, with a large throng of deeply interested spectators, witnessed the important naval battle between the British and American fleets, and rejoiced in the defeat and the humiliation of the proud and haughty invader. In 1819 he removed to a farm on the south end of the Island where he lived till the spring of 1829. Then he moved to Mil-
