

ways have been the ways of wisdom, peace and joy in God. All his children, seeing the beauty of holiness and the light of life on his pathway, have followed his steps and are walking after him to God. He is living to see them all happy, honored, useful and active christians. Their children are filling his later years with the sunshine of childish mirth. The evidence of all who have known the inner life of this man of God has been a glorious testimony to the supporting grace of God in the midst of great trials. He has been a modern example of Job. "Though He slay me yet will I trust him," has been his glowing testimony to the grace of God.
