

William, he bought this property (present site of Pearl Barley Mills at Marcellus Falls), putting in looms, etc. At his death, 1826, his son Joseph succeeded him. Mr. Fisher, of Ash Grove, told the writer in 1857 that "he was so honest that he believed everybody honest." This made him a victim of the crafty. A fervent Christian, his life was always serene and joyous. They were members of the first Methodist class at Marcellus. Height about 5 feet 8 inches, spare, Roman nose, full lips, energetic and quick. He married Hester Jackson of Mountrath, Ireland, July, 1790. She was quite robust, brunette complexion, black hair and eyes—before marriage clerk in her father's store at Mountrath. Born 1772, died November 12, 1831, apoplexy.
