

State Map and Gazetteer. Taught schools at Pleasant Valley, Jordan and Conquest, N.Y., and New Egypt, N.J.; Professor Classics and Botany, 1859, at Jonesville Academy, N. Y. Married Esther, daughter Peter Legg, Conquest, N. Y., October 2, 1861. Bought farm, Conquest, N.Y., 1859; sold, 1864, and bought 96 acre farm in West Camillus, N.Y.; sold and, 1866-7, operated roofing business at Cincinnati, Ohio; 1868, partner with brother,

MRS. THOMAS WILLETT RHODES.<sup>5</sup>

Theodore Frelinghuysen Rhodes, in quarry and lime manufacturing, etc., at Montour, Iowa; 1873, exchanged for 228 acre farm and stock and 80 acres pine, Waupaca County, Wis., and 1886 retired from active business; 1886-7 resided at Waupun, Wis.; residence since, Milwaukee, Wis.; temporarily at Marcellus, N.Y. Active Christian since 1848. Has held almost every lay office in Methodist Church. Intense hater and fighter of Boss rule and of Rum rule. Writer for the press. Special interest in botany and geology. No alcoholics nor tobacco. Prohibitionist. His wife educated Red Creek Academy; teacher in Cayuga County; an