

A hymn was sung by the assembly from a sheet prepared and printed for the occasion.

The committee on a new edition of the Fletcher Genealogy reported: (See prospectus, page 3.)

The report was adopted, and Albert A. Fletcher,<sup>7</sup> (gt. grandson of 2297) of Bridport, Vt., was appointed as a committee as therein provided.

Amos Fletcher,<sup>7</sup> (2887) of Nashua, N. H., made an address.

The meeting adjourned for

DINNER,

which was served in Jackson Hall adjoining, and every seat was occupied at the well-spread tables. During the repast music by an orchestra was enjoyed, and after singing by the company, they returned to Huntington Hall, where, at half-past two the meeting was again called to order for the

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Albert A. Fletcher, committee on guarantee fund, reported the following pledge for subscription:

"We, the undersigned, hereby agree and bind ourselves to stand and pay any assessment which may be found necessary to complete the new edition of the Genealogy of the Fletcher family, to the extent of the amount set against our names respectively, and to forward the same on demand to the proper officer designated for the collection of the same, should any deficiency occur and assessment be necessary to defray the expenses thereof; said assessment being computed pro rata on the amount subscribed."
