

571. ELBRIDGE GERRY FULLER, (6) son of John (5) and Rebecca Strong, gr. son of Joshua, Jr., (4) born in Ware, Mass., 1813.

He took up his residence in Halifax, Nova Scotia, and became a citizen of the country. In 1865, he removed to Souris East, Prince Edward's Island, where he lived until his death Oct. 18, 1871.

He was a man of prominence and influence, as may be seen by the following quotations of the "Halifax Morning Chronicle." "The office of American Consul at this port has been conferred on Elbridge G. Fuller, Esq., long and favorably known as a resident of Halifax. Mr. Fuller is an American by birth, a native of Massachusetts, and imbued with a true democratic spirit. We cannot imagine that any more popular appointment could possibly have taken place. Mr. Fuller is a gentleman of energy and public spirit, and will sustain the dignity of the office and discharge its duties with efficiency."

"The Halifax Sun" and the provincial press, express the same sentiments, saying: "The people of Nova Scotia recognize this important appointment, as a proof of the wish of the government, to foster friendly feelings, as well as increased intercourse between American citizens and Her Majesty's loyal subjects in Nova Scotia."

He m. Abba Whelply of Eastport, Me., March 17, 1845.

His children were:
