

gon); Cordelia, (married Seth C. Paine, both living in New Hartford).

Mary,* fourth daughter of Lynde Phelps and Lorena Gaylord, married Almeron Marks of Burlington, Conn., and settled in Durham, New York. They had three sons and two daughters. Mr. Marks died in 1853, and in 1862 his widow became the second wife of Chancey Brooks of Baltimore, where she and her husband now reside. Cordelia, eldest child of Almeron Marks and Mary Phelps, married Zadoc A. Ward. They are now living in Pittsfield, Mass.; Arthur, now living in Detroit, Mich.; Constant R. in Sioux City, Iowa, and Roland P. in Chicago, Ill. Mary Lorena, the youngest, married Alexander Wheeler of Bridgeport, Conn., where they now live.

Lorena and Lovina Phelps were twins. Lovina died at the age of 18 years. Lorena married Luman Spencer. They are now living in Burlington, Conn.. They had one son, Edward Phelps, who is now living in Burlington, Conn.

Caroline, the youngest daughter of Lynde and Lorena Phelps, married William Pierce of Durham, New York, where they still live.

*The writer of this sketch.