

Province Bills of Credit to my Grandaughter Sarah Williams of Salem. Item to my daughter Elizabeth Gedney nine pieces of Eight mild money. Item I give to my grandson Bartholomew Gedney my silver tankard marked S: P: . Item I give to my Grandaughter Sarah Williams wife of Robert Williams twenty six Pounds in Province Bills of Credit. Item I give to my granddaughter Susannah Williams daughter of my granddaughter Sarah Williams five pounds in Province Bills of Credit. Item I give to Susannah Gedney daughter of my Grandson Bartholomew Gedney five Pounds. Item I give all the remaining Part of my Estate to my son William Gedney and in case I should outlive him or survive him my will is y^t what I have given him shall be equally divided between his children in manner following viz: Bartholomew shall have one third Part, Hannah Grant one third Part, and Elizabeth Davie one third Part, and in case Elizabeth Davie should not live to lawfull age or to be married and leave no Issue then her Part to be equally divided between Bartholomew Gedney and Hannah Grant."

In 1698 (24th Dec.) Wm. Gedney, merchant (wife Hannah releasing dower), and Nath'l Gedney, mariner (wife Mary releasing), convey to their step-father Deliverance Parkman, merchant, one-half of the Ship Tavern, etc., calling themselves the "only surviving children of M^{rs} Susanna Parkman and grand children of M^r John Gedney of Salem dec'd."

In 1704 (18 Sept.) "Deliverance Parkman who married with Susannah Gedney adm^r on y^e estate of M^r John Gedney jun^r late of Salem dec'd" conveyed "to W^m Gedney of Salem y^e only surviving sonne of said John Gedney," by quit claim deed, all her interest "especially in and to that dwelling house and land in Salem that was the estate of my wife Susannahs late husband John Ged-