

receipt signed by Sarah Williams and Mary Rose for a portion of their "Grandmothers wareing aparil which we haue Rec'd In Rite of our mother M^{rs} Mary Phippen Decst," dated Jan. 13th, 1731-2.

Sarah Williams, wife and attorney of Robert Williams, of Salem, mariner, and a granddaughter of Mrs. Susanna Parkman, late of Salem, dep'd, etc., acknowledged, April, 1728, receipt from her uncle William Gedney, executor of the will of said Susanna Parkman, etc. Mrs. Gedney left two children by her second husband, as appears by a conveyance, made 3 Jan., 1737-8, by Sarah Williams, Edward Rose and wife Mary, to Jonathan Ring, of all their right that their mother, Mrs. Mary Phippen, late of Salem, had to the thirty-third lot in Salisbury in Mill Division, the said Sarah and Mary being children of Mrs. Phippen; and a quit claim of the same lot from Nathan Phippen, who acknowledges receipt of a certain sum of money from his two sisters therefor. Susanna Williams was a witness to the first deed.

I find that Mrs. Gedney was married to Thos. Phippen Oct., 1706.

Mr. Nathaniel Gedney's only child by his wife Mary was:—

53 Sarah, bapt. 23 May, 1697; m. Robert Williams 16 Oct., 1717.

30 Hannah (Bartholomew^s John^l), born in Salem 19th, 6 mo., 1667, was married to Joshua Grafton 2d August, 1686. He was born in Salem 9 April, 1660, being a son of Joseph Grafton by his first wife Hannah, daughter of Joshua Hobart of Hingham, and a grandson of Joseph Grafton, the first of the name in Salem, whose homestead included what is now known as Hardy Street and the lots on both sides of it from the harbor up to Essex Street.
