

He and his son, Silvanus,²⁹⁷ were part owners in a number (8 +) of privateersmen in 1782, and records indicate a remunerative business.

Lieut. Silvanus Martin,²⁹⁷ son of Captain Silvanus,²⁹⁶ b. 19 Mar., 1748; d. 25 Nov., 1818; m. 6 Nov., 1774, Amey Brown,²⁹⁷ dau. of Col. William Brown²⁹⁶ and Susanna Dexter.²⁷⁶ He was lieutenant of a company of militia against the British, in Roxbury, and in 1776 captain of 19th Conn. Militia. A member of Providence Town Council 1695-6-7-8 and representative to General Assembly 1790-1. He lived in Rehoboth, Mass., East Windsor, Conn., and Providence, R. I.

William Brown Martin,²⁹⁸ son of Silvanus,²⁹⁷ b. 13 Feb., 1777; d. 28 July, 1833; m. Sally Thurber,²⁹⁸ dau. of Martin Thurber²⁹⁷ and Prudence Waterman.²⁹⁸ He was a lawyer and justice of the peace in Providence, R. I.

Rebecca Covell Martin,²⁹⁹ dau. of William B.,²⁹⁸ b. 25 Apr.; m. 30 Mar., 1830, James Humphreys,¹⁵⁶ of Providence, R. I.

Hopetill Martin,²⁴⁶ dau. of Edward,²⁹⁶ b. 8 May, 1725; d. 7 July, 1785; m. Samuel Thurber.²⁹⁸

Richard Bullock,⁵¹¹ Rehoboth, 1643, freeman 1646, d. 1667, and Elizabeth Ingraham⁵¹⁹ (d. 7 Jan., 1660, Rehoboth), were the parents of Samuel Bullock,²³³ b. 19 Aug., 1648, Rehoboth; m. his second wife, Thankful Rouse,²³¹ 26 Jan., 1675; d. 1716.

I have never yet scanned anything of descent of Thankful Rouse (1602-1664)
Thankful Bullock,²³² dau. of Samuel,²³³ b. 27 June,